ONE INDICTMENT IS RETURNED BY
THE GRAND JURY*PROPRIETOR OF BALKAN SALOON
CHARGED WITH RUNNING
GAMBLING GAME

Kosto Kesij, proprietor of the Balkan saloon, was indicted by the Nye county grand jury late yesterday afternoon on the charge of conducting a gambling game and was released later upon $2000 bail, that amount having been fixed by the court. Charles F. Wittenberg and Mike Glogovaz furnished the bonds.

The grand jury met at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and immediately took up the case of Kesij. After arriving at a decision the indictment was drawn and the report made to Judge Coleman, who ordered a bench warrant issued and fixed the bond of the defendant. Kesij was already under $500 bonds, having been bound over to the grand jury upon the completion of his preliminary examination in the justice court.

A complaint was made to District Attorney Sanders last week that Kesij was conducting a gambling game at the Balkan saloon. The district attorney issued a warrant which was turned over to the sheriff's office. Deputy sheriffs, in serving the warrant, raided the Balkan saloon and arrested six others whom they charged with gambling. The alleged violation of the law on the part of Kesij occurred prior to the time of the raid, although statements to the contrary have been made locally.

The grand jury has taken no action in the case of the six alleged gamblers who were arrested at the time of the raid and it is thought that the matters will be disposed of next Wednesday as the jury will not meet again until that date.

FORMER MARSHAL IN JAIL

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 14.—Captain Peter Eals, who was marshal of Cripple Creek, Colo., when the gold camp was still wild and woolly, spent last night in the Salt Lake City jail. He had just come in from California and was arrested at the request of the chief of police of San Francisco who wired that he was charged with embezzlement in receiving money for partnerships in a patent medicine business. Captain Eals denies the charge. He gave his age as 63 years.
